

FOR JUSTICE"

50 YEARS OF A HISTORICAL DISCOURSE

«Form men and women for others». It is one of the phrases that marked a turning point in the history of the Society of Jesus and served to update Ignatian spirituality.

These words were pronounced in the Schools of San José in Valencia, in the summer of 1973 by Fr. Pedro Arrupe sj, 28th General of the Jesuits, in the context of the X Congress of the European Confederation of Alumni of the Society of Jesus.

The Spanish Federation joint with European Confederation and World Union of Jesuit Alumni will commemorate in the San José Valencia Schools, the 50th anniversary of this speech into a meeting in which the consequences of that speech will be analyzed, the challenges posed, its development and what remains to be done.

EUROPEAN CONFEDERATION OF JESUIT ALUMNI SPRING MEETING

27th and 28th open to all Jesuit
Alumni/ae

